MEDICINAL.

IS THIS YOUR STORY?

"Every morning I have a bad taste in my mouth; my tongue is coated; my head aches and I often feel dizzy. I have no appetite for breakfast and what I eat distresses me. I have a heavy feeling in my stomach. I am getting so weak that sometimes I tremble and my nerves are all unstrung. I am getting pale and thin. I am as tired in the morning as at night."

"What does your doctor say?"

"You are suffering from impure blood."

"What is his remedy?"

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

You must not have constipated bowels if you expect the Sarsaparilla to do its best work. But Ayer's Pills cure constipation.

We have a book on Paley and Weakness which you may have for the asking.

Write to our Doctors.

Address, DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

A CARD.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

Permit the undersigned to be heard to say through the columns of your esteemed journal that the enemies and others of a more disgraceful calibre to Roberts Chapel, M. E. Church, have been afforded an opportunity recently to say a great deal about the church from a local appearing in your paper of the 20th instant, under the heading of "A Fight in Church," when the church had nothing to do with the affair whatever.

That a pastor and some one may have had words or an altercation, I could not nor would not attempt to deny, but we have a land marked by tombs of a host of members of this church whose history is nearly as old as the dying century, and whose memories are dear to many of our people from the fact that they lived and walked uprightly—exchanged their earthly laurels for crowns of immortality and left a posterity who today with their increased education and facilities look back upon their ancestry with pride and admiration. In proof of oft expressed loyalty to the Methodist Episcopal Church, with the recollection of the fact that ministers are appointed annually by the Washington Annual Conference to fill the pulpit of Roberts Chapel, M. E. Church, (the pride of Virginia's colored methodism) together with other churches of the same creed and conference, it would be a poor people to sneer at such occurrences complained of in your local of the 20th, above referred to, while it can be confidently asserted that the membership are absolutely without any record whatever that would have a tendency to disgrace the community in which we live or the race. That strange ministers and strange men who are sent and come into the church may curse and fight, I would not attempt to deny, but hope that the respectable justice-loving community will not charge the respectable element of the colored race composing the membership of Roberts Chapel, M. E. Church, with anything disgraceful growing out of the recent unpleasantness in the neighborhood of Roberts Chapel after the church or class meeting was dismissed (which is an evidence that no fight has occurred in the church), from the fact that the majority of the church membership and its followers are opposed to ministers or others who would allow themselves to become so enraged under any circumstances to do anything that would have a tendency to disgrace the church, and although recent reports have made a harvest for idle gossipers Roberts Chapel should maintain today her former respect among fair minded people, enraged ministers and strange class leaders notwithstanding.

W. M. CARTER.

Alexandria, June 26.

A DIRE PROPHECY TRUE.

Thomas C. Simpson, of Williamsport, Pa., father of Mrs. Ramsey, the New York woman who cut her husband's throat, says that the tragedy was no surprise to him. He, too, thinks that his daughter will destroy herself. Her marriage with Ramsey was much against her parents' wishes, and Mr. Simpson says they used all possible arguments to persuade Grace to give him up.

In the light of the terrible tragedy that has followed the marriage, a prophecy made by Mr. Simpson to Grace a few days before her wedding has a weird significance.

The father says that during a conversation with Grace, in which he endeavored to have her promise that she would not marry Ramsey, he told her: "If you do marry him there will come a time when, at night, while the full moon is shining in on his face as he lies asleep, you will suddenly experience such a revulsion for him that you will murder him."

On the day fixed for the wedding, which was last New Year's, Mrs. Simpson left the city so that she need not witness her daughter's marriage. The ceremony took place at the bride's home, but of her family only her father and one sister were present.

The Simpsons are much distressed over a series of ill-luck incidents of which their daughter's tragic act is the climax. But a few days ago they received word that their son, Guy, who is with the army in the Philippines, had been wounded. One day last week Clarence Smith, a young man, residing near Mather, who was to have wedded their eldest daughter during this month, met with an accident which is feared will result fatally. Miss Simpson is at his bedside.

The principal objection to Ramsey on the part of the Simpsons was because of his conduct with another young woman from Williamsport.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak that I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave me relief. I am now well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at E. S. Leabaster & Son's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me. I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for twenty years. Respectfully, MRS. MARY A. BEARD, Claremore, Ark. For sale by J. H. Janney, Druggist, 701 King St.

Thomas Thurman, deputy sheriff of Troy, Mo., says if every one in the United States should discover the virtue of Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve for piles, rectal troubles and skin diseases, the demand could not be supplied. Edgar Warfield, Jr., corner King and Pitt streets.
